Where Champions Train

April 2009

Get ready.....It's almost time for.....

KoSho SUMMER CAMPS

This summer, along with all of our usual fun games, contests and serious karate skills, we are going to focus on dangerous situations and how our kids should handle them.

Our kids must be aware of what's going on around them and have strategies ready and practiced to deal with trouble. This is what we will be teaching in our summer camps this year. Reserve your child's enrollment now.

March Mini Seminar

Sensei George White taught all about the Jo. How useful it is to be able to defend yourself with what is basically a walking stick. Whenever you are hiking or just strolling your neighborhood, you can be armed and able to fend off attackers. Even of the four legged variety! If you didn't attend you really missed a great seminar!

The next mini-seminar is scheduled for April 25
